

We would like to inform the university students about the upcoming course at the Concerto Master Class, which will be conducted by violoncellist Mario Brunello on October 8, Wednesday, for talented young music students studying in Hungary.

In addition to applications for active participants, we are also offering opportunities for students to join as passive participants. This course is free for both active and passive students, but registration is required for all participants. All attendees will have the opportunity to sign an attendance sheet to formally record their participation.

Course language: English

Exact course time: October 8, 2025, from 15.00-19.00 p.m.

Location: 1094 Budapest, Páva u. 10-12, Concerto Music House

Students should send their applications to the following email:
rita.kocsis@concertobudapest.hu

When applying, please specify whether you are registering as an active or passive participant, and active students must also indicate which piece they will present.

Application deadlines:

Active students: October 1, 2025, Wednesday, by 00:00

Passive students: October 7, 2025, Tuesday, by 00:00

Please be kind enough to notify the students about this!

Of course, we warmly welcome all the institution's students, teachers and the employees to attend the public course, and they can also register at rita.kocsis@concertobudapest.hu.
